A big tin mine has been discovered near Phoenix, says a paper of that city. The legislature should be investigated and at once.

Governor Kibbey insists in Weedin out the mine tax bills which, in the words of the executive, are "wholly vicious." Sounds like a mad dog.

A Kalamazoo, Mich., woman had her infant daughter christened Evelyn Nesbit against the wishes of the father. The only way the latter can get even is to name the next one Harry Thaw.

Just think, if Congressman Tawney had stayed with Arizona in her fight against statehood, he would not have been able to get up in the house Thursday and warn his colleagues to cease their extravagance.

A justice court jury in Tucson acquitted a mining man of gun toting because he forgot that he was in the city limits. If a man would have given this excuse to a Globe jury he would have been sent to Yuma for life.

Correspondents of an Albuquerque paper have been denied the floor and galleries of the New Mexico lower house because members of that body had been "wilfully misrepresented" by the paper. They can't take a joke over in New Mexico.

Phoenix had a waitress strike a few days ago which threatened to put the legislature out of the public eye for a short time. But men (f) were soon secured to fill the places of the girls, who had struck for a ten-hour day instead of a twelve-hour day.

It is said that the would-be city "busters" have a paid lobbyist in Phoenix trying to prevent the legislature from passing the bill introduced by Councilman Hunt to validate the incorporation of Globe. Owing to the element which he represents, the lobbyist will have his hands full, trying to convince intelligent men that Globe is better off without self government.

HIGHER SALARIES NEEDED

The letter carriers of Butte, Mont., resigned in a body, because the wages paid were lower than those paid in the mines. The department refused to accept the resignations, and the matter is still unsettled. The postmaster says he will have to have as many more clerks as there were carriers previously, in order to care for the business of the office. The pay of carriers is limited by law in offices of the class to which Butte belongs, to $850 a year, which is below the compensation for ordinary labor in that high priced, thoroughly unionized mining town.

The same problem is met with almost everywhere in the west. In the El Paso postoffice there is constant changing about, owing to experienced men leaving for better paying positions with private concerns. The city of Douglas, Ariz., was promised free delivery service long ago, but the service has not been inaugurated, because carriers cannot be had at the low wages allowed under the law to offices of that class.

It is hard to see how one rate could be made for the east and another for the west, yet the law of supply and demand is all in favor of the east and against the west in this matter. Out here there are a good many more jobs than men, while in the east the reverse is true. Here it is hard to hold good men in any capacity, so easily does the young American adapt himself to new occupations, and so keen is the competition for capable men.

The only way out seems to be to raise the scale all over the country, and that is exactly what will have to be done if the standard of public service is to be maintained. The same thing is true in the railway mail service, where the compensation is much less than that of railway and express employees of approximately equal grade. The government service is ordinarily deemed very desirable, even at a lower rate than private employment, because of the comparative certainty of tenure and the absolute certainty of regular pay. But wages will have to approximate private rates in the same locality if the government is to command the best class of labor.—El Paso Herald.

WILL DRILL TUNNEL AT RATE OF TEN FEET AN HOUR

A machine which is expected to revolutionize the driving of tunnels for either mining or railroad construction is the drilling machine of the Utah Karns Tunneling Machine company of Salt Lake City, the president of which is a brother of George Belcher of this city. Speaking of what the machine will accomplish and what it consists of the Salt Lake Tribune says:

The details of the machine now being assembled in Cleveland are very interesting, and the machine is the largest ever attempted by the company. It is anticipated most confidently that it will be more successful than the smaller machines heretofore tried, owing to the greater clearance. This will enable the machine to be disposed of more readily, relieving the wheel from pushing against its own work already accomplished. The wheel is eighteen feet in diameter. Its weight is twenty-three tons, the shaft weighs thirty tons, the carriage sixty tons, and the cutters weigh four tons. The total weight of the machine is 110 tons, and it will take five freight cars to transport it from the factory to the mountain which it is to pierce.

There are 160 sets of cutters on the wheel and the number of drill points equals 4,000. It will take 14,000 cubic feet of free air per minute to operate this machine, requiring boilers sufficient to generate 1,200 horse power. The machine will strike a 63,000-pound blow, having an eight-inch stroke, with 150 strokes per minute. The wheel, weighing twenty-three tons, and the shaft, weighing thirty tons, of which the rapid action is required, is ball-bearing, distributed as follows: Under the rim of the wheel there are forty six-inch balls, each riding on seventy-five one-inch balls, and in the carriage there are twenty-eight six-inch balls, fourteen being in the front of the carriage and fourteen in the rear. The distribution of weight allows only fifty-four pounds pressure on each of the one-inch balls, which has a capacity of sixty tons of dead weight before breaking.

President Belcher stated that the railroad engineers who inspected the machine expressed complete confidence in its power, and one was willing to wager that it would drive the tunnel at the rate of ten feet an hour. The machine will be dismantled and in readiness for use in three months and its work will be watched with intense interest all over the country.

Reflections of a Bachelor

What do they do in heaven to keep the moths out of the clothes you don't wear?

When a man tells how little coal his furnace burns he never learned what they taught him at Sunday school.

If the government has a surplus the average citizen imagines it couldn't happen if he weren't so sound in his politics.

The funniest thing is after you have kissed a girl she will tell you the next day you didn't because nobody ever did.

It's awful hard for a woman to believe that she doesn't save money by spending 5 cents twice for things instead of spending 10 cents all at once for twice as much.—New York Press.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF KELLY REALTY COMPANY

Know All Men by These Presents:

That we, Harry E. Kelly, Samuel L. Gibson, John B. Newman and John T. Hendrickson, of Globe, Gila County, Arizona, all citizens of the United States of America, have this day voluntarily associated ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation under the laws of the Territory of Arizona, and we hereby certify, acknowledge and adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I.

The names of the incorporators of this company are: Harry E. Kelly, Samuel L. Gibson, John B. Newman and John T. Hendrickson.

ARTICLE II.

The name of this corporation is, and shall be, KELLY REALTY COMPANY.

ARTICLE III.

The location of its principal place of business in the Territory of Arizona, shall be in the city of Globe, Gila County, Arizona.

ARTICLE IV.

The general nature of the business proposed to be transacted by the corporation is as follows:

To carry on a general abstract, title insurance and trust business. To insure, warrant and guarantee titles; to furnish complete abstracts of title to every kind and character of property in the County of Gila, Territory of Arizona, and to issue certificates of title thereon; to acquire by purchase, or otherwise, abstracts, abstract books, systems and indices, copies, briefs and indices, of all public records within the said County; to make, prepare and complete abstracts and copies of all instruments, notices, judgments and decrees affecting the title to real estate or personal property within said County, and to enter the same into appropriate abstract books, systems and indices; and to prepare, make and issue trustworthy certificates, policies and abstracts of title for customers, and to receive and collect compensation therefor;

To accept and execute trusts of any and every nature; to attend, in legal manner, to the management and settlement of estates, guardianship, assignments, receiverships, and other trusts, whether under appointment of courts or otherwise; to act as trustee, executor, administrator, and guardian of estates; to act as pledge holder, escrow holder, attorney in fact, receiver, broker, agent, trustee, and depository; to issue and sell debenture bonds, secured by mortgages on real property, or otherwise secured; to receive on deposit, or otherwise, monies, gold, silver, bullion, stocks, bonds, notes, mortgages and evidences of indebtedness, for the use and benefit of depositors, and to receipt therefor; to buy, sell, discount, guarantee and deal in stocks, bonds, notes, mortgages, negotiable instruments, and evidences of indebtedness, whether of persons or corporations, and to make, execute and perfect such contracts, agreements, certificates, policies and other instruments as may be required therefor; to act as real estate, stock, fire and life insurance broker; to act as agent and broker for the sale and purchase of real estate, personal property, stocks, promissory notes and other evidences of indebtedness; to borrow and loan money on real estate, personal or collateral security, and to negotiate loans for customers; to purchase, hold, own, sell, mortgage and convey real estate, mines and mining claims; and to act as agent for fire and life insurance companies, and bond and surety corporations.

The highest amount of indebtedness or liability, direct or contingent, to which this corporation shall at any time be subject shall in no case exceed two-thirds of the amount of its capital stock.

ARTICLE VI.

The stockholders private property shall be exempt from all liability for corporate debts of any kind.

ARTICLE VII.

The amount of the capital stock of this corporation shall be Fifty Thousand ($50,000.00) Dollars, divided into Fifty Thousand (50,000) shares of the par value of One ($1.00) Dollar each, to be fully paid, in cash or property, when issued and non-assessable thereafter.

Lincoln on Women's Enfranchisement

When the subject of women's enfranchisement was scarcely considered worthy of consideration, Lincoln said: "I go for all sharing in the privileges of government who assist in bearing its burdens, by no means omitting women." He was the first president of the United States to declare himself publicly and unequivocally in favor of the participation of women in government.—Pictorial Review.

Churchill Stopped It

A guest was looking over the register at the Brown Palace yesterday when he was heard to say: "Well, I'll be hanged if that's not about right."

C. W. McClure, the cashier, heard him and asked: "What's about right?"

"This registration here," said the man, "look at it."

On the book was "J. C. Godhelp, Chicago."

"Chicago certainly needs it," said the man. McClure smiled. "Indeed it does," he replied. Then he noticed the initials. "What do you suppose this 'J. C.' stands for?" he asked.

At this juncture C. H. Churchill, chief clerk of the hotel, who teaches a Sunday school class, stepped up and stopped the sacrilegious discussion.—Denver Post.

The Size of Heads

The average adult head has a circumference of fully twenty-two inches. The average adult hat is fully six and three-quarters size. The sizes of men's heads are six and three-quarters or eight and three-quarters. "Seven" hats are common in Aberdeen, and the pursors of our colleges generally wear seven and one-eighth to eight sizes. The wearing hats of the six and three-quarters and smaller or being less than twenty-one inches in circumference never be powerful. Between eight and twenty inches in circumference heads are invariably very weak, according to this authority, "no should think of marrying a man whose head less than twenty inches in circumference." People with heads less than nineteen inches are mentally defective and with heads under eighteen inches invariably idiotic.—Kansas City Journal.
